Boasting excellent Italian construction, the Cayman 42 is a motorboat with a flybridge in the 2-cabin version with 2 bathrooms. The spacious salon features a dining table and a sofa on the port side, storage furniture, and a TV on the starboard side. The helm station on the port side is equipped with all the necessary equipment, including a bow thruster, plotter, autopilot, etc. Descending to a lower level, you'll find a complete galley with a sink, stove, microwave/oven, and a large vertical fridge and freezer.

On the port side, there is a closed cabin with a full bathroom. Towards the bow, there is a cabin with a central double bed, cabinets, and a complete bathroom. The cockpit is spacious with a dining table, teak, and a huge aft platform. Additionally, it features a third helm station for manoeuvring in the marina.

The flybridge has benches all around, a helm station with all controls on the starboard side, and a large sun deck at the bow.
